17. THE RESIDUE

This is all that you own except jointly owned property and the gifts made in questions 15 and 16. Please state below who is to receive the residue on your death and who is to receive it if they die before you. If there are gifts to your children, we may suggest a provision that if any of them dies before you, leaving children of his/her own, those children (your grandchildren) will inherit their parents share.

The following are the more common provisions made. If you wish to use one of these tick the appropriate box, if not, please go to question 18

- (a) Everything to my husband/wife/partner named in question 2 above, outright, but if he/she has died then to my children, named in question 4 above, equally

Please tick to select

- (b) Everything to my children, named at question 4 above, equally and any other children of mine. You may choose the age at which your children will receive their entitlement.

Insert choice from 18, 21 or 25 years in this box

- (c) To my husband/wife/partner named in question 2 above, but if he/she dies before me to the person(s) organisations(s) named in the box below. If not in equal shares then show the share such is to take

GENERAL NOTES

1. A Will is usually completely cancelled if you marry after making it. You will need to make another Will immediately, or one which takes a forthcoming marriage into account
2. On divorce gifts to your husband/wife are cancelled as is his/her appointment as executor but the rest of the Will stands. This can create problems and it is better to make a new Will
3. If you are not making any provision for a husband/wife partner or a former husband wife/partner, it is possible that he/she could make a claim against your estate. If this does apply please seek further advice from us
4. Please feel free to ask for our help or advice or more information on the topic related to your Will during your appointment.

Email your completed form to onlinewills@sthelenslaw.co.uk
